Old £1 coins are no longer legal tender from midnight 15th October. Please have look through your coin savings and use up the £1 coins as soon as possible. The paper Five pound notes that turn up in the collection can be changed at the bank anytime as they must give you the new note in exchange. However, the old coins will be more challenging, banks will exchange these after the 15th but may not make it easy. Don't forget to check down the back of the settee! Julie Haines

FANCY A SING SONG?

If you enjoyed the Singalong at the Harvest Supper last night, would you like more opportunities to sing for fun? A small group of us visit the White House Nursing Home (Malden Road, on the corner of Motspur Park) on alternate Thursdays, 10- 10.45 am and we could do with a few more volunteers.

It doesn't matter what you think of your singing abilities - we are there to enable the residents to enjoy a variety of songs, and a few laughs. Words are provided, and a cup of coffee. See Alison or Doreen for more details or just turn up if and when you can. Next dates: Oct 5 and 19.

Crazy Horn Virtuosity comes to Music in New Malden Sunday 8th Oct 3pm

It's a bit special. Ursula Paludan Monberg and John Irving will be performing three rarely-heard early 19th-century showpieces for horn and piano by two of the great virtuosos of their age: Carl Czerny and Jacques-Francois Gallay. These pieces are not quite unplayable...

To calm things down from time to time, there will be three solo piano works by Schubert, taken from the Moments Musicaux of 1823.

Tea and cake afterwards in the welcome area. Nominated Charity for this concert: Royal National Institute for the Blind

This week's Church flowers have been kindly donated by Doug Bryan and arranged by Jan Harry.
