10.30am Morning Worship led by Revd Stan Brown
6.30pm Café Church led by Revd Karl Rutledge

WELCOME

It is good to have you with us today, sharing in our Worship. If you are a visitor, new to the area, or just beginning to attend this Church, we hope you will feel at home, and that you will come again.

Tea or coffee is served in the Welcome Area after morning Worship. Please stay so that we can get to know one another.

So that we may keep in touch, please fill in your details on the Welcome card in the church chairs. There is also a Welcome pack available in the Welcome Area listing all our regular events.

If you would find it helpful to use a Korean-English Bible, these are available in the Church – please ask one of the stewards.

CHURCH FAMILY NEWS

Please pray for any you know who are in hospital, bereaved or unwell, or who are going through a difficult time.

Carol Dadds has had her knee operation and is recovering at home.

Phyl Hammond wishes to express thanks for the church flowers, which were delivered just after her family heard the news of the death of her son, Andrew, who was living in France. Please pray for Phyl and all her family.

JMA COFFEE MORNING

This will be held next Saturday, 21st October from 10am. Donations of cakes would be gratefully received. Please give this your support.

ARTS GROUP

The next session of the Arts Group is on Thursday 19th October at 2.00pm. At one point we'll be looking at restoring old paintings with a demonstration on ours! Bring anything of yours that you are working on. We would love to see it. Looking forward to you coming.

Eric Murray

The Church collection for 8th October was £469.59 plus a weekly average of £641 in direct giving.

‘NOTES FOR CHANGE’ - NMMC ORGAN APPEAL

We want everyone to feel involved in this major project to refurbish our organ. There are opportunities to raise funds in a number of ways, and members of the Organ Committee (Alison, Peter, Mick, Tony) will be pleased to receive your ideas and contributions. £2 coins are being collected in Smartie tubes in the Welcome Area, and, Love it or Hate it, you can also fill your own Marmite jar with whatever denomination you wish. No old pound coins please!

Cook Book

Forms can be collected from and returned to Alison Bullett’s pigeonhole, or electronically. Submit as many as you like by October 29, to go on sale at the Christmas Fair on November 24.

ACTION FOR CHILDREN

Thank you so much to those who keep Action for Children collecting boxes. I would be grateful if those who have boxes could please bring them in so I can do a yearly deposit. If anyone would like a box, please contact me and I would be happy to bring one in. Thank you for your continuing support.

Lucy Turner

3Fs

Faith, food and fellowship is at Andrew and Angie Turner's house (52 Acacia Grove) on Friday 3 November from 7.30pm. Beyond the sharing of food and fellowship, 3Fs participants generally discuss an issue of current interest. And a good time is generally had by those who come. All are welcome. Please just let Andrew and Angie know by a few days beforehand if you are planning to be there. Advance notice: we may be discussing Martin Luther at the next meeting, to mark an important quincentenary.....

“Helping children and teenagers to manage risk in their real and virtual world today”

Tuesday 21st November, 7.45pm for 8pm at New Malden Baptist Church

The event on the 21st November at New Malden Baptist Church will be led by a real expert in the field – Paul James, a father and foster carer, with a career of over 35 years in school leadership and children’s services. It comes highly recommended for all parents/carers of children of any age— get a babysitter if at all possible!

Drinks will be served at 7.45pm and the presentation will start promptly at 8pm, lasting about 90 minutes, with time for questions.

NMBC warmly invite you to attend. There will be no specific charge but those attending will be invited to make a voluntary contribution towards the overall cost of the evening. Tea and coffee will be provided. It is expected that the event will be very popular and so pre-booking is essential. Please contact Sue Atkinson in the NMBC church office: office@nmbc.org.uk or 020 8942 6912 as soon as possible to confirm your place.

Please see the noticeboard for more information.
