Prayer of the Week

God of justice and mercy,
we pray for all in the criminal justice system, especially for victims of crime waiting for their cases to be heard, those experiencing mental health issues or poor conditions in prisons, and for those who administer justice and work to rehabilitate offenders.
May the compassion Jesus showed to the thief crucified alongside him guide our approach to justice. Amen

Everyone is welcome, regardless of vocal quality; it is a lovely chance to sing some of the older well-known hymns for about 40 minutes and to share a cup of tea with the residents afterwards.

All Saints Kingston Faith Talks

The next in this series is on Wednesday 11th September at 6.30pm (bar open from 6.15pm).

This free ticketed event is titled "The Economy, How do we build an economy that works for us all? It is a town hall style event with questions invited (and encouraged!) from audience members, as always, the talk will be recorded and available to watch on our youtube channel after the event. They are keen to have a broad "voice" in the audience (as in previous talks) with an open and honest debate about the Christian response to this issue - our aim is to promote faith in the public square on the big issues of today. The main Speaker is Bishop Peter Selby.

Tickets can be obtained online (the talks are ticketed so a tally of numbers can be kept but totally free of charge) from.
