Prayer of the Week

Compassionate and caring God,
we pray for all of those who are anxious about making ends meet right now, and in the coming months as the energy price cap rises.
May this church be a place of warmth and support.
Help us all to look out for one another, and to be generous with what we have. Amen

Church Family News

Unfortunately, Hilary's Dad was taken back into hospital last weekend and is now on a respiratory ward. Please continue to pray for Andrew and for Hilary and her Mum, Dell, as they continue to visit and support Andrew and encourage him to eat.

This week's Church flowers have been kindly donated by Jean Bedford and arranged by Julia Morton

The loose collection for Sunday 21st August was £33.88.

THANK YOU

I just wanted to say huge thank you for last Saturday's Alp coffee bar (take 2).
Both fundraising events have been extremely successful, spreading the word about the charities and the fundraising and raising a whopping £800 between them. This is all down to the fantastic church support.
The generosity of everyone involved never ceases to amaze me.
The contribution of time and resources, doing all the baking, jam making and coming down and serving and buying others' products is just brilliant.
My only disappointment is that due to my training regime, my cake intake is virtually zero at the moment.
