Francis Keith Curas-Thompson

You may remember David Knowles' piece in Spotlight last year about the stained glass window at the rear of the church.

David continues to research Francis but completely coincidentally last week Sue Abell received a message from Francis' son, David Curas-Thompson. He now lives abroad and got Sue's number from our website. He wanted to mark the seventieth anniversary of his father's death with a floral tribute which has been arranged by Julia and you can see on the windowsill in front of the memorial window. We will make sure that David receives a photo.

Saturday in Wesley's

Last Saturday's coffee bar made £253 for JDRF – Junior Diabetes Research Fund. Mary Garrett is very grateful for everyone's support and said, it is such a good way to raise funds and to keep up the awareness of the work the charity undertake. Many thanks again.

This week's flowers have been arranged by Julie Haines and donated by Anne Bedford.
