Message from Rev Choi

“Remember this, whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly.
And whoever sows generously will also reap generously”.
2 Corinthians 9:6.

Dear friends,

This is the very basic principle of ‘sowing and reaping’, which we all understand. No farmer will get any crop, unless he goes out to sow the seed (give it away). And, the greater thing in this is that once it is sowed, it reproduces and multiplies a hundredfold. That is a divine logic, the grace, which we don’t understand. But, we may need to see that it is also true with money, and everything in our lives. Obviously, it doesn’t seem to be sensible that when we have a need, we need to give. But, that may be the reason why it needs faith, the farmer’s faith that the seed will multiply.

This year, for the first time in my life, we planted some vegetables at the back of our garden, such as tomatoes, potatoes, strawberries, courgettes, chards, chives, carrots,... Perhaps we were too ambitious, or too ignorant. During summer, we did put our efforts to grow them as much as we could, although we didn’t know much about how to grow vegetables. Nevertheless, I realised again that God was faithful, and we were given ‘a great harvest’, much bigger than I expected. It was a great joy and fun, though sometimes I was feeling tired and pointless in doing it. To me this year was just a trial year, and I have learned a lot, of which the most precious one is that unless you sow or plant, you will never know the great joy of harvesting.

This harvest, gladly we have seen many generous and cheerful givers in various ways: donations, and giving their time and energy in all the preparations of the Harvest Service. I believe that your sowing (giving away) will be multiplied enormously and be given back to you with all the blessings as well as immeasurable joy.

With every blessing,

Choi

SUMMARY OF RECENT CHURCH NOTICES

Church Family News

The family of David Willis would like to thank all those who contributed, attended, and supported at his Thanksgiving Service on Thursday 5th September. We have been touched by all the cards and kind words we have received. Many thanks, Elizabeth, Hilary and Margaret.

We would like to wish John King a speedy recovery following his hip operation on Saturday 7th September.

Room Bookings

At the start of the new session I am making my annual plea for all organisations to let me know their requirements for rooms. Please will you confirm what you need even if the details are the same as last year. The hall diary is made out for every day of the year so I need start dates, end dates, start times, end times and any occasional variations such as holidays. Gaps in the diary then make rooms available for outside lets. Not being clairvoyant, phrases like 'term time', 'monthly', 'alternate weeks', 'same as usual' etc do not help me to complete a daily diary! Thank you, Alan Vincent

Rotary Shoeboxes

Once again we shall be filling shoe boxes to send to Eastern Europe via the Rotary scheme. If you wish to fill your own box, these are now available in the Welcome, together with leaflets explaining what to put in them. As last year, we shall be receiving the boxes at the World Church Weekend, date yet to be fixed but probably around the end of October.

Due to greatly increased costs, a donation of £2 on each box towards the transport of the goods to Eastern Europe would be appreciated. Donations towards postage would also be welcome.

If you do not wish to fill your own box but would like to contribute, there will be baskets in the Welcome Area for items for the Church boxes. Any queries, please contact Carol Dadds, Julie Haines or Julia Morton.

Bookstall

The Methodist Prayer Handbook – 'Light and Hope' is available on the Bookstall – cost £3.50.

MILK BOTTLE TOPS

Thank you to everyone who has saved their milk bottle tops. Unfortunately any tops other than milk bottle tops cannot be melted down to make wellie boots as they are apparently too hard. Mark, my friend in Hampshire, takes them to Southampton where they are recycled in aid of the Rose Road Association's children's appeal for children with disabilities (www.roseroad.org.uk - based in the Hampshire area.)

Once again, many thanks.

EDWARD DAVEY'S VISIT ON 8 OCTOBER - 7. 30 FOR 8 P.M.

Edward Davey, MP for Kingston and Surbiton and Secretary of State for Energy and Climate Change, has agreed to speak at the Church on the evening of 8 October. We are very fortunate that he has found time in his busy schedule to visit us and would naturally like to have a good attendance for him - both from the Church Family and friends. Please book the date and encourage others to come.

(NB. This is in no way a party political meeting but rather an opportunity for us to learn about the work of an MP who, incidentally, regularly holds some of his Saturday morning constituency advice sessions on our premises)

Alan Vincent

WIVES AND FRIENDS FELLOWSHIP

WIVES and FRIENDS meetings start again on the 14th October for Snack and Chat. We meet at 7.30.p.m. and for the first evening we shall be in the Welcome Area. On the 28th October the Guides will tell us about their visit to India (a very interesting talk). All are welcome, so do come and join us for the new session.

ACTION FOR CHILDREN COFFEE MORNING AND SALE

On Saturday 26th October the Surbiton Hill Action for Children Committee together with Danielle Mensah, New Malden's new Action for Children representative, will be selling home made cakes and Action for Children Christmas Cards and Diaries in the Coffee Bar between 10am and 12noon. Do please come and support this worthwhile cause. Donations of cakes would be appreciated, wrapped ready to sell. If you can help in this way please let Danielle know and bring your contribution to the coffee bar at 10am.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

This year we will remember that we are a worldwide church on Sunday 3rd November. Rev. Elizabeth Osei will be leading the service on the theme of the church in Ghana. To celebrate our diversity we would like all those who are able, to come to church wearing their national dress which should make it a very colourful occasion. We plan to have a family lunch after the service and again, would like this to have an international flavour. We would ask that those who can, bring some food to share representing their own ethnic background. Alternatively, you could share a recipe with us so that others can prepare the food. It really would be wonderful to eat together as a family and to celebrate our diversity through food.

Please talk to Birgit Cowan, Janet (Jones) or any of the stewards regarding catering and LET'S CELEBRATE!!

ALL NEW MEETING POINT

As many of you know, Meeting Point is changing this autumn. Instead of weekly meetings, we plan to have monthly talks, generally on subjects of topical interest, and to hold these in the sanctuary at 8 pm on the second Tuesday of each month, except January and August. The meetings will be preceded by coffee in the Welcome Area from 7.30 pm and we hope this will encourage people from outside to come and join us.

We do hope you will join us to support this new church venture. The programme so far is listed below. As you can see we still have a number of gaps and are contacting a number of people to fill these. However, if you have any suggestions of people or subjects we could include we would love to hear from you.

Remembering David Willis

REMEMBERING DAVID WILLIS

David's Life Story by his Daughter Hilary

David Lindsay Willis was born on 2nd February 1930 and lived at 13, Castlevue Gardens in Ilford, Essex, to parents Marjorie and Stan and a younger brother to Jean. He was given a girl's name for his middle name not because there was any confusion, but after the surgeon Mr Lindsay who operated on Jean's feet soon after she was born. David grew up in Ilford attending the Methodist Church there and went to Highlands School for both his infant and junior education. He enjoyed dancing round the maypole, excelled at the 3 legged race and even developed a special winning technique for the sack race which he has passed on to his grandchildren!

After the outbreak of war in 1939, David aged 9 was evacuated with Jean first to Ipswich and then to South Wales where they ended up in the valleys living in Aberdare for 2 years. While in Wales he developed a taste for custard tarts which were his chosen weekly treat paid for by his Mum, and he sat and passed the scholarship exam for Ilford County High School for Boys which had also been evacuated there. Returning to Ilford and his own family at Easter 1942 aged 12 David continued at this school now in Barkingside. Dad particularly enjoyed the story of his Chemistry teacher there challenging the boys to measure 'half a drop'! He joined the Methodist Youth Club and cut quite a dashing figure. There is a story in the family that some girls there used to call the shoe shop Freeman Hardy and Willis 'Freeman Hardy and 'sigh' in his honour! It was here that he met Mary Sones whom he subsequently married in 1958 in Cobham, Surrey.

Dad progressed to study Classics at Kings College, London University from 1948 -51 followed by 2 years National Service in the RAF as an Officer working as an Air Traffic Controller at various bases around the UK, including that at Middle Wallop – the name of which always made us laugh! He was stationed at REF Felixstowe in January 1953 when it was submerged by the East Coast Floods and made uninhabitable.

Demobbed in Autumn 1953, David needed to find work. He considered a career as a solicitor, spent some time working in management at a Chocolate factory and then entered the world of insurance working for Friends Provident and then Legal and General.

However these careers were not for him and in Spring 1954 he was offered a job in the City of London working for Henry Bath. David found dealing in the import and export of steels on the London Metal Exchange fascinating, and stayed there for 15 enjoyable years during which he passed accountancy exams and became an Associate, and later a Fellow, of the Chartered Institute of Secretaries, which enabled us to tease him later about 'filing his nails' and 'taking a letter'!

His next move was to the National Dairy Council at Oxford Circus as Assistant and then the actual Company Secretary which opened up another new world of advertising and public relations activities. There David was heavily involved in the launch of Lymeswold cheese – an English soft blue, and instrumental in the 'Milk has gotta lotta bottle' campaigns. We were lucky enough to accompany him to Norwich to watch the launch of various hot air balloon flights using balloons in the shape of a pint of milk, and also on several occasions to the Milk Cup (the FA Cup Final) at Wembley. These were tremendously enjoyed by us all.

After 15 years, David moved in 1984 to Froebel College as the Bursar working locally in Roehampton with a lovely commute to work through Richmond Park. In this role he was responsible for finance, accounting, personnel and property and it was at this time that he caused much hilarity when, consulting on a new road layout and traffic calming measures for the college, he rang up the local police station to ask for the dimensions of a sleeping policeman!!

During Dad's working life he was also involved in many other activities: he was active on school PTAs- including helping to dig the swimming pool at Coombe Hill School, he studied German and took swimming life-saving classes which led to an embarrassing encounter when he and Mum bumped into a lady from the class in New Malden High Street only to hear her say 'Oh hello David, I didn't recognise you with your clothes on!' He was also a Sunday School teacher – the only one ever to pronounce 'Noah' as 'Norr' and confuse everyone in the play! He and Mum were original members of the Malden Care Scheme regularly delivering people younger than themselves to appointments! and they enjoyed many carefree family camping holidays with us when we would take off to France Holland or Spain and go in whichever direction they fancied!

After slightly early retirement in 1993 David helped with Meeting Point here and also with Victim Support and enjoyed holidays to visit far-flung family in Zimbabwe and South Africa. He also enjoyed playing short tennis and ball games with his friend Peter Mills and the club in New Malden, and he relished his role as 'Grampy' to all 7 of his Grandchildren.

Dad was, like all of us, devastated to lose Mum in 2003, and had to adapt to learn to shop, cook (excelling at breakfasts and wonderful toasted sandwiches but not a lot more!) and even had to learn to work the washing machine! He joined Rotary and very much enjoyed the meetings, fundraising and fellowship he found there. The Honorary Membership of Rotary recently offered to him would have been gratefully received we are sure. Dad enjoyed several holidays with his mate Doug Bryan and joined our 3 families on holidays to the South

Coast and Cornwall, to Sardinia, Minorca, Ireland, Sicily and Brazil as well as family camping trips to Cousin Andrew's farm in Oxfordshire, although in later years he did stay in the lovely farmhouse overnight and enjoy flashing torchlight messages from his window in the warm and dry across the dark field to us shivering outside our tents!

Dad was a gentleman- trustworthy, honest, reliable and loyal, he preferred crosswords to Sudoku despite my best efforts!), he liked anything coffee-flavoured (except candyfloss or anything in a bun!), he was a big reader and a grammatical expert, a man who could be relied upon to speak his mind- even when we would rather he didn't! Dad had a talent for fun poetry (of a sort) an example of which is on the table at the back for your amusement and in which he rhymes 'pianoforte' with 'well past forty' and the like! He also had a love of cringeworthy puns which made us groan and a hearty laugh which has I expect caused us all embarrassment at various times!

Dad was first diagnosed with prostate cancer in January 2001 and after slow progression he became markedly worse in 2012. He accepted all his treatment with good grace and a 'let's get on with it' positive attitude. He willingly took part in trials of new drugs which we hope will help in further treatment breakthroughs in the future.

Dad and Mum were very active members of this church since moving to New Malden in the early 1960s. Their faith was very important to them both and they enjoyed the fellowship and friendship of you all enormously. We are so glad Dad was able to have his 80th birthday barn dance here with so many of you three years ago, and that he was able to dance EVERY dance. We would like to thank you all for the many lovely cards and kind words we have received and for the support you have shown us all.

To us 3 girls, Dad, with Mum, was supportive, full of fun, encouragement and love, and we will always be grateful to them both for that. Now we must each strive to re-create our own upbringing using the example they set us for our own children. We can only try!

THE FEAR ENGENDERED BY MENTAL ILLNESS

The word schizophrenia strikes fear into people; with thoughts of crime and violence. We are now into the 21st century and mental illness is still a taboo subject. The story of Jonny Benjamin is a harrowing tale of suffering in silence and a feeling of complete isolation and hopelessness.

Jonny first heard voices when he was 10 and thought everyone else did. Even when he was diagnosed with depression he did not disclose that he heard voices. He went to university to study drama and his flat mates did give him support. Eventually, he was diagnosed with schizoaffective disorder - depression and schizophrenia rolled into one, and hospitalised for treatment.

Three weeks into his treatment he realized that he was not getting better, so he ran away. He found himself on Waterloo Bridge and a stranger, a little older than himself, said, "You can get through this". It was a life changing moment. He went back to hospital and in 2010 he came off medication and was declared well.

He now makes documentaries and campaigns on mental health issues. His aim is that young people suffering the same illness as he did should not endure the loneliness, fear, isolation and hopelessness he did.

Sadly mental health spending has fallen and 2000 psychiatric beds in England have been cut. Jonny Benjamin is now 26 and is an inspiration for all who are concerned about mental health and the fear engendered by it.

A Few Miscellaneous observations on life:

- ~ A lot of people want to serve God, but only in an advisory capacity.
- ~ Any small object, when dropped, will hide under a larger object.
- ~ The real art of conversation is not only to say the right thing at the right time, but also to leave unsaid the wrong thing at the tempting moment.

Around the Circuit ... October 2013 - news from your Circuit Coordinator

How quickly the autumn chill invades our homes. We set ourselves challenges of surviving a bit longer without central heating, or of delaying changing our summer clothes for the more sombre colours of winter, but eventually we succumb to the inevitable change and it is not so bad. Let's be warmed by happy memories and excited as we step forward on the path which God has planned for us. Please remember in your prayers, Andre Justin and Yangsun Yi who are candidating for presbyteral ministry. They must tackle a huge amount of work during the next few months, needing to complete their portfolios by November and their training as local preachers by May 2014. They are assured of the full support of our circuit.

Whether you have ideas, or are seeking inspiration, whether you can't see past the hurdles or whether you just want to 'dip your toe in the water', you shouldn't let this opportunity slip you by. Rev Rob Jones and Rev Dr Stan Brown, bring their considerable experience as Britain Connexional Team chaplaincy specialists to lead this small group study course for nurturing engagement in God's mission through chaplaincy. Local, congregation led chaplaincy is one of the most effective ways to collaborate in God's mission in the world; local people responding to local needs over time can change the world! GUARDIAN ANGELS

2nd October is the feast day or celebration of guardian angels. A guardian angel is an angel who protects and guides a person. Angels are mentioned in 34 books of the Bible: they protect people from danger and are a bridge between God and the world.

Acts (chapter 12) tells how Peter was put into prison by King Herod, but the night before his trial an angel appeared to him, and told him to leave. Peter's chains fell off, the prison doors opened of their own accord, and the angel led him out.

Even little children have a guardian angel: Jesus said "See that you despise not one of these little ones: for I say to you, that their angels in heaven always see the face of my Father who is in heaven." (Matthew, chapter 18).

Guardian angels cannot change what we do but they will lead us, if we wish it, to the Kingdom of Heaven.

WHICH ANGEL?

Write the first letter of the answer to each of these questions in the boxes below. Then rearrange the letters to make the name of an angel who delivered a special message....

1. The first man
2. A book of the Old Testament is named after this queen
3. A giant killed by David
4. He was Ruth's second husband
5. Son of Abraham, father of Jacob and Esau
6. A doctor who wrote the third Gospel and Acts
7. Another book of the Old Testament named after a woman.

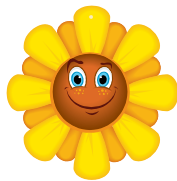

(See page 18 for the answer - no cheating though!)
