Prayer of the Week

God of all comfort and peace, we pray for the victims of the devastating plane crash in India,
for their families and loved ones as they await painful news,
for local people injured or displaced as a result,
and for those charged with investigating what happened.
May all know your love and care surrounding them. Amen

Church Family News

Julie out of ICU and now in Vernon Ward. This is a long road to recovery. Receiving physio in bed but not yet able to stand or put any weight on her leg. In good spirits but will be on antibiotics for the next 6 months. No visitors at the moment please but very soon we hope. I'll let you know asap. Progress much as the family expected but not nearly soon enough for J. 😊

Eat, drink and sing hymns

Refreshments will be served as usual after today's service until just after 12noon. There will then be opportunity to sing Wesley favourite hymns in the sanctuary before our Bring & Share lunch at 12.30pm. After lunch we will sing the remaining hymns in order to total 30. Tea, coffee and a slice of celebration cake will be served to finish approximately at 2pm.

Thank you

A huge thank you to everyone who baked, attended and donated last Saturday to Dave's London Bridges walk for SSAFA. We raised a magnificent £324.25 which was a brilliant result.

More thanks

Another thank you from Sarah for the lovely cards and theatre vouchers that the church and the Wesley's volunteers gave me last week on my retirement. I was very touched and grateful and will very much enjoy spending the vouchers. Many thanks

This week's flowers have been kindly donated by Carol Dadds and arranged by Julia Morton.
