Prayer of the Week

God of mercy,
whose Son, Jesus Christ, is the Prince of Peace, we pray for the de-escalation of tensions in the Middle East, and in particular for an end to the conflict between Israel and Iran.
May all who are frightened right now know your comfort, and may true peace reign. Amen

Church Family News

During this morning's service we will be celebrating the baptism of Jeremy Tetteh, son of Anita and Julian.

Julie Haines is expected home early next week subject to physiotherapy. There have been no seizures at all this time. A very good sign. To paraphrase the doctor's comments I sent to my girls: Julie is a good pupil always bright and cheerful. She seems keen to learn. She has mastered shuffling with a Zimmer frame and has come to grips with the rudiments of going upstairs. However, she needs some remedial work on going downstairs. This will come with a little more practice.
