Macmillan Coffee Morning

Thank you to everybody who supported the Macmillan coffee morning by making a cake or coming along and buying one. Also to those who made generous donations. Sterling work was done by Andrea, Teresa, Judith and Molly. The atmosphere was buzzing in Wesley's with happy people full of coffee and cake. What more could you want?

The magnificent total made on the morning was £570.36, plus a further £45.00 via Justgiving so well over £600.00 in all.

Thank you to Julia for organising!

Coffee Bar & Cake Sale – Saturday 9th October

NMMC will be hosting next Saturday's coffee bar so offers of cakes and help would be much appreciated. Jams and chutneys will also be on sale. Please come along and support us.

If you would like to run a Saturday coffee bar for a charity of your choice, please let Sarah know.

The loose collection at the Harvest Festival service last week was £10.00 (!).

Churches Together in New Malden

CTiM are planning to set up 'Prayer on the Street'. The plan is to gather with two or three other people just once a month for 2-3 hours on a Saturday morning outside Waitrose in the High Street. There would be a banner offering a chance to talk, be listened to and have prayer, if they should wish. Even if no one takes up the offer, it will not be time wasted as the volunteers will pray between them for blessings on the residents, families and businesses in New Malden. It would also be a chance to show the care and love of Jesus to those who might need Him most.

If you are interested in joining this initiative on behalf of the Methodist church, please contact Gill on 07956 513 695.
