COFFEE BAR, Saturday 12th January

Karl is running the coffee bar on this day in aid of Kingston Community Refugee Sponsorship. He would welcome offers of help and cakes please. Many thanks

WIVES AND FRIENDS

It has been our practice since the millennium year 2000 to hold an 'in house' meal in January. This year it is our Diamond Anniversary (60yrs) and so we are holding this on Saturday 26th January at 6.45pm and we would very much like to invite anyone in the Church who has been a member in the past or has had any connection with Wives, to join us for this occasion. So if you would like to be part of this celebration, please do join us and let me know, or you can sign the list in the Welcome Area, by 20th January at the latest.

CHRISTMAS TREE FESTIVAL

Many thanks for your support during the festival and for help with the dismantling.

The proceeds were up on last year, boosted by more money in the communal jar in addition to the proceeds from the coffee bar and the carol singing in the High Street on Saturday 22nd December and collections from the 10.30am service and Lessons and Carols on Sunday 23rd December and the Christingle service. In excess of £1700 was raised.

We were also lucky enough to have most of the trees donated to us by the people who held a Christmas tree sale on the Church patio on Saturdays 1st and 10th December.

BEREAVEMENT CAFÉ TRAINING

A reminder that the training dates for the Bereavement Café are as follows:

Thursday 17th January 10.00am – 4.30pm at NMMC
Saturday 26th January 10.00am – 4.30pm at Princess Alice Hospice

MUSIC IN NEW MALDEN

Happy New Year!

It was wonderful to see so many people coming to hear the Harmonie Choir and Orchestra in December, and we are looking forward to welcoming you back for another exciting concert - the perfect start to 2019!

The Lakeside Clarinet Quartet are no longer able to perform, so instead we are delighted to welcome back pianist Robert Bridge. He will present a varied programme of Bach, Boulez and Ravel.

Bach – French Suite no.5 in G major, BWV 816

Boulez – Douze Notations

Ravel – Le Tombeau de Couperin

As always, the concert will last around an hour and will be followed by tea and cake. We hope to see you there!

This week's Church flowers have been kindly donated by Eleanor Alleyne and arranged by Julie Haines.
