MEETING POINT

“Health services in Kingston – your experience”. David Knowles, who has wide experience within the NHS and beyond, will be talking about this on Tuesday 10th July. Although this is the last Meeting Point, it is aimed at a wide and unlimited audience from within the Church and outside so do come and bring your friends and questions on this vital and topical subject. We will meet informally in the Welcome Area from 7.30 onwards, and the talk will begin at 8pm, rounding off with drinks and snacks.

3Fs: Faith, Food and Fellowship

The next 3Fs will be at Andrew and Angie Turner’s house 52 Acacia Grove this Friday 13th July. This is an “everyone welcome” event where we share food (maybe with a glass of something suitable for a Friday night) and fellowship, and discuss a current issue with our faith in mind. So that they can make sure they have enough of everything on hand, please let Andrew and Angie know (Andrew.turner@ymail.com or 020 8408 0715) by Tuesday 10th if you plan to come. They plan to provide food (barbecue, weather permitting) so no food contributions are necessary this time – although they hope that you will be able to offer a donation to Refugee Action Kingston. (Please do not be put off if you have not been to 3Fs before – anyone is welcome and no pre-qualification is necessary. Do ask Andrew, Angie, or alternatively David or Sue Knowles or Liz or Rob Edwards if you have any questions.)
