Prayer of the Week

Loving God,
as we find ourselves in the midst of a September heatwave, we pray for all those sleeping on the streets of our borough.
May all find safe places to keep cool and comfortable, and may those working to bring care and access to services have strength and encouragement to keep going in challenging conditions. Amen

Hymns and Reading for this Morning's Service

20	Be still for the presence of the Lord
649	God! When human bonds are broken
615	Let love be real
693	Beauty for brokenness

Annual Church Meeting – TODAY

Please stay if you are able for our Annual Church Meeting which will take place after this morning's service. All welcome.

There will be a church council meeting after the service on Sunday 24th September. Please send any reports to Richard Bland so that he can circulate them before the meeting. Thank you.

The loose collection for Sunday 3rd September was £71.20.

Church Family News

The memorial service for Kunashe Mwenye will be held at 2.00pm on 23rd September, not on the 9th as previously advertised.

Glynis, Carl and Courtney Fox would like to thank everyone for their help and support over the last few weeks. Thank you to everyone who helped at the funeral in any way and who have held them in their thoughts and prayers. The magnificent sum of £380 has been donated to the RNLI IN Adrian's memory.

Local Arrangement Sunday 24th September

If you would like to suggest a hymn for the morning service on 24th September please let Liz Edwards know on or before next Sunday (the 17th). Thank you.

Wesley's in October

As you know, from 1st October, we plan to return to the Wesley's pre-Covid opening hours of 10am to 2pm.

This is a huge leap of faith as we can't do it without volunteers and we will need twice as many volunteers to fill up the rota!

Please could you offer your time, even just once a month, and your prayers to enable us to extend our service and outreach to the community of New Malden.

Sarah & Lee

Music in New Malden are busy putting the finishing touches to the 2023-24 programme of concerts and it promises to be a bumper one, with several new instruments for MiNM, including classical guitar and the organ, together with welcome returns by New Malden Voices and The Harmonie Choir. Full details will follow shortly.

The Committee has been some work on the future development of MiNM now audiences are returning more-or-less to pre-Covid levels.

Since Jane and John founded the series in 2008, it has come a long way, providing more realistic professional fees, and introducing students and community groups to bring the widest range of top quality music to a venue where many are able to walk to concerts. They are justifiably proud of the educational outreach achieved locally - supported on two occasions by grants from Kingston Council - giving several hundred pupils at Burlington Junior School the opportunity to hear inspiring professional musicians performing at the school. The concerts are reasonably well-known locally plus a mailing-list of over 400, but MiNM feel their efforts could be better focused and we could enter into a more fruitful dialogue with those of you who attend reasonably often. The proposal is to establish a list of subscribers who, for a modest £5 membership charge each year, will become voting members of MiNM and entitled to attend our General Meeting where accounts are presented (rather overdue following when it was difficult to meet), the past reviewed and the way forward explored. If this doesn't sound an entirely attractive prospect, a short concert will follow the meeting when two outstanding young brother musicians – Jamie and Rory Zweimueller – will entertain us; between them they play the flute, violin, cello and piano to a very high standard and the chance to hear them in concert should not be missed.

To obtain membership and a free ticket for the concert after the GM on Sunday 24th September 2023 at 3pm just go to the TicketSource site www.ticketsource.co.uk/musicinnm (QR nearby) and subscribe £5 for each.

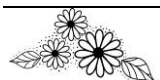

A change will also be made to ticket prices. It has been found that the large proportion of tickets bought on the door is difficult; partly because of logistics (including change), but also because of the difficulty in providing the right quantity of tea for afterwards. Tickets bought in advance (either on line or from Wesley's) will be £8 as before, but tickets bought on the door will be £10 and the subscription ticket will be discontinued as it was sold in small quantities and the term may be confusing with our new Annual Subscription.

All involved in MiNM are very much looking forward to welcoming you to this season. Two dates for your diaries:

Sunday 24th September 2023 3pm General Meeting with Jamie and Rory Zweimueller in Concert

Sunday 8th October 2023 3pm Concert by Julian Hellaby (piano)

This week's Church flowers have been kindly donation by John Tarrant and arranged by Julie Haines.
