Prayer of the Week

Loving God,
help us to be kind to one another amid the busyness of everyday life.
Give us the awareness to notice when others are feeling down, and the compassion to take the time to listen.
Be with everyone feeling lonely, and with those anxious right now, especially in the face of the heartbreaking scenes from Ukraine. Amen

Jenny and Michael Reid will be celebrating their 50th wedding Anniversary on the 18th March. We all send them huge congratulations on this milestone.

It is with regret that we must report that Rosemary Wraith died on Wednesday 9th March. Her sister Gillian was with her and said that Rosemary slipped away as the sun rose. Our love and prayers are with Gillian and the rest of the family.

National Day of Reflection at Kew Gardens Wednesday 23rd March from 11.30am

To mark the Marie Curie National Day of Reflection, Princess Alice Hospice is working with Kew Gardens to offer a special day to remember all those who have died during the pandemic (not necessarily of Covid-19). Anyone who has been bereaved during this time is offered free entry into Kew for up to four people and the opportunity to attend a short service of remembrance. There will be a minute's silence at 12 noon and Steve Nolan, Spiritual Care Lead at the Hospice, has been asked to say some words of reflection. A beech tree is being planted and there will be a performance by the Voices of Hope choir. It's an opportunity for all those attending to have a peaceful walk around Kew or take part in one of the workshops they are putting on (places are limited).

There will also be a special late afternoon session from 3.15pm to 5pm for bereaved children and children who have had their lives affected by Covid-19. This will involve the chance to explore and enjoy the Children's Garden and a planting activity to take home. Children will need to be accompanied by an adult. Places have to be booked.

This is not being advertised on the Kew website, so anyone who is interested should follow this link for more information and for booking details.
