Prayer of the Week

Loving God,
we pray for those impacted by natural disasters across the world,
particularly in Morocco and Libya in recent days.
For those who have lost loved ones, bring comfort.
For those left without shelter, bring practical help.
For those working to save lives and recover the dead, bring strength.
May we all take good care of the world you have made. Amen

There are all sorts of jobs available to help with the smooth-running of the Sunday morning services (reading, welcoming, making and serving coffee, etc). Please have a look at the rota and sign up if you are able to help. Thank you.

All are welcome to join our Wellness Walking Group along the Beeline Way towards Raynes Park Sports Ground and back.

Coffee Mornings for Macmillan

There are two opportunities coming up to support Macmillan via a coffee morning in Wesley's. The first is next Saturday 23rd September when Inner Wheel will be hosting and the second will be FRIDAY 29th September when Julia will be opening Wesley's early at 10am and selling cakes in aid of this brilliant cause. As ever, your support by way of help serving, cakes to sell and your presence would be very much appreciated.

Lunchtime Concert

Tuesday 19th September 1.10pm

Peter Bullett will be treating us to an organ recital, playing pieces he says we may not have heard before!

It will be a programme of pieces for organ from many periods which make their effect through diverse structures and styles by Bach, Flor Peeters, Purcell, Dvorak, Mozart, Pachelbel and Percy Fletcher.

Come along for 40 minutes of music. There will be a retiring collection to meet expenses.

Wesley's in October

As you know, from 1st October, we plan to return to the Wesley's pre-Covid opening hours of 10am to 2pm.

This is a huge leap of faith as we can't do it without volunteers and we will need twice as many volunteers to fill up the rota!

Please could you offer your time, even just once a month, and your prayers to enable us to extend our service and outreach to the community of New Malden.

Sarah & Lee

This week's Church flowers have been kindly donation by Sue Knowles and arranged by Doreen Downey.
