HARVEST THANK YOU

Everyone who attended the Harvest Supper last week enjoyed an excellent hot meal followed by a quiz that got our brains working! Very many thanks to those who provided casseroles and puddings, setter uppers, washer uppers and to anyone who helped in any way. A good time was certainly had by all. Special thanks go to Alison and Julie for co-ordinating and to Julie for a great quiz. Proceeds went to All We Can, amount to be announced at a later date.

Also, thank you to all who decorated the church for Harvest Festival on Sunday. It looked and smelled wonderful.

MUSIC IN NEW MALDEN – THIS AFTERNOON

Please come along this afternoon to the first concert of the NiNM new series. We are delighted to welcome Sacred Bones with an exciting programme of renaissance music from the Anne Boleyn Songbook (c.1520). Winners of the Guildhall School's Brian Nisbet Early Music Prize, the group combine cornets, sackbuts and voices to create a lush and inviting sound. The concert will take place on Sunday 14th October at 3pm, and as always, will be followed by tea and cake.

BOILER NEWS

Members and friends may be aware that one of the main church boilers has been shut down due to a failure notice being issued when it was recently serviced. I have now been informed by the contractor who will undertake a repair that the manufacturer is fabricating the combustion chambers at the moment which they will then dispatch to the merchants. The boiler contractor is estimating the receipt of these is the first week in November when they will contact me with a view to arranging an appointment for overhauling the heat exchanger and installing the combustion chambers. We will need to hope that the warm temperatures that we have been experiencing recently will continue. Mick Tavinor
