DONATIONS REQUIRED

There are currently 1200-ish refugees sleeping rough in Calais/Dunkirk. They have no fixed camps to live in as French riot police (CRS) regularly force them to move on, and conditions will only get worse as we move into winter.

Donations are mainly used to provide vital humanitarian assistance to these refugees. When donations can't be used locally they are sent on to other relief charities supporting refugees, for example in Paris, Greece or Lebanon.

List of items needed:

- Clothes. Particularly warm/waterproofs for winter, and small men's/unisex clothes.
- Toiletries. Including women's sanitary products, tissue/toilet paper, soap and razors.
- Tents/tent parts (broken is fine).
- Sleeping bags.

Many thanks, Karl

JMA - Junior Mission for All - World Church

We all accumulate 1p, 2p, and small coins in our change, so as a fund raiser at the start of a new financial year, let's donate these to JMA. Please save up any coins from now until next Sunday, 27th October, when the JMA presentations will take place and if you bring these along on that Sunday we will place them around the perimeter of the Church floor and may be surprised by the result. If you are unable to be there on that Sunday, please bring them along to any service before then and hand them to me or one of the stewards. Thank you in anticipation of a fun mission.

WAITROSE CHARITY SCHEME

The eagle eyed amongst you will have noticed that one of the Waitrose 'Community Matters' causes this month is the NMMC Memory Café so if you are shopping in Waitrose, please put your green counter in our slot so that Glynis can purchase craft supplies and resources to help her make the Memory Café even more splendid.

SAFEGUARDING TRAINING

Here are the details for the upcoming safeguarding training sessions:

Saturday 2 November at Surbiton Hill

Registration 9.45am; session 10am - 12.30pm.

Monday 4 November at New Malden.

Registration 7.15pm; session 7.30pm - 10pm.

The sessions will include safeguarding basics, and updates about current issues. The two sessions are the same – you need to come to only one! It's important to book your place, so that we can make sure we have enough training materials for everyone.

Safeguarding training is mandatory for people in certain church roles, but you won't need to come if you have attended in the last four years. Of course, many people choose to attend anyway simply to keep themselves up to date, and to stay informed – as safeguarding is everyone's responsibility.

Please book your place with me, or Sarah Moore, or talk to us if you're not sure whether you should attend.

This week's Church flowers were kindly donated by Alison Bullett and arranged by Pam Wardley.
