Dear Friends,

What kind of Christmas will we have this year? Some are predicting shortages, rising fuel prices and a resurgence of COVID. Others see only improvement and hope. Frankly I wonder if it wouldn't do us all good to have a little less choice in all those things we don't need which flood our shops. But there is one potential shortage which is a big exception - the problems of rising fuel bills for those on the lowest income.

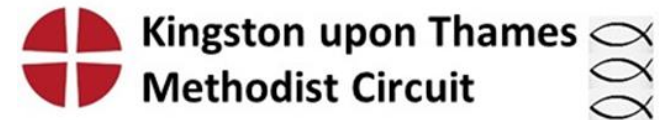

Ever since Good King Wenceslas looked out and saw a poor man gathering winter fuel, the cost of staying warm in winter has been a problem. Our churches will also face the rising winter costs but somehow I think we will keep them warm and welcoming for the wonderful Christmas services we are now planning. The greater challenge for us at Christmas is to keep that warmth of worship in balance and harmony with the warmth of our passion to see God's Kingdom grow. Our worship and our nitty-gritty action for the Kingdom are both things of beauty for God.

The Kingston Food Bank was a pioneer in the now rapidly spreading scheme of "Fuel Banks". A great example of Kingdom values at work. As our attention turns to preparing Christmas worship may we be as energetic and faithful in finding imaginative and effective ways to serve the present age as we are in preparing and singing our Christmas music.

God Bless

Rev Stan Brown
