August 2024

Message from Karl

This summer has, thus far, proven that one can always trust the British weather to throw up contrasts. In the past few weeks, we've had everything from Mediterranean temperatures and hot sunshine to downpours of biblical proportions, and many things in between! August is still, however, a great time to visit the various gardens around and about, from the Isabella Plantation in Richmond Park to RHS Wisley and Kew Gardens, to name a few. There are also a number of RHS flower shows besides Chelsea and Hampton Court, which are good fun.

This year, one of the gardens at the Tatton Park Flower Show has been put together by a group of Methodists, and has been awarded Best in Show. It's called 'The Garden Isn't Finished Without You', and has been designed to "illustrate some of the values that are important to the Methodist Church". Each plant in the garden "represents a person and signifies that, like plants, every individual is beautiful just the way they are".

Talking about the thinking behind the project, Holly Adams, Evangelism and Contemporary Culture Officer for the Methodist Church says, "We want to be a Church that gets out and about, beyond the walls of our buildings, meeting people in the places where they gather and being good news. When Ollie Pike (of Pike Studio) approached us to explore creating a garden together, it seemed like a no-brainer. We're really proud of our commitment to inclusion and diversity – a commitment that is deeply rooted in our faith in a God who loves all of us unconditionally. The show allows us to express that commitment in a beautiful, creative way."

Inspired by the typical floorplan of a Methodist Church, the layout is abstracted to create a beautiful communal space, with the planting reflecting diversity from across the world. The garden aims to be net zero by 2030 by sequestering more carbon than it has produced. Its use of vibrant climate-resilient plants and net zero regenerative materials shows that there is a bright future for sustainable and mindful gardening.

If you want to find out more, take a look at <https://www.methodist.org.uk/about/news/the-methodist-church-is-sponsoring-its-first-garden-at-the-rhs-flower-show-at-tatton-park-cheshire/>

I think this is a wonderfully creative way of expressing God's love. This summer and beyond, what seeds might God be planting in your mind to do something creative to shine a new light on the creativity, love and wonder of God?

Every blessing, Karl

Very Happy Church Family News

Sue and David Knowles' daughter Sarah and her husband Matt were delighted to welcome Megan Elizabeth into the world on 4th July. The whole family are thrilled and the grandparents are of course besotted.

Shirley Stewart

Andrea Mootton wanted to share these lovely photos of herself with her much missed friend and 'coffee bar partner' Shirley Stewart.

Donald Finnian, another much missed friend, got in on the act as well.

Alzheimer's Bake Sale

Lee's husband Marek, their son Sam and friend Wojtek having completed their 10K run.

Lee and her family would like to thank everyone again for their support for helping raise over £800.00 for their sponsored 10K run for Alzheimer's Society.

With huge thanks, The Monczak family.

Saturday in Wesley's

I am in most Saturdays and know many of the regulars. Those who come in once a month for their 3, 4, 5 or even 6 jars of jam (returning their cleaned empty jars); those who come for a whole home made cake (bringing their own tin to take it home in); those who come in and purchase a number of small cakes for their table of friends or family. The man with the two small boys on their scooters who enjoy surveying the table and choosing a cake for themselves. Those couples who arrive again with a box and whilst one of them goes to order the tea/coffee the other chooses the sausage rolls and cakes for the coming weeks tea, plus something for now.

These people help many charities raise between £200 and £400+ every Saturday.

Probably due to holidays no one has signed up to run the coffee bar in August. There are 5 Saturdays. I don't want to see the place closed, so..... Can you help?

I will be there on all of the Saturdays but to open I need your help. 2 people to serve the teas and coffee and at least 1 person to sell the cakes.

Please check your diaries and sign up on the sheet on the notice board.

Also needed cakes/sausage rolls/scones. Thankyou

We will raise money for different charities, the first (next Saturday, 3rd August) being Action for Children.

Thank you Julie Haines

Jams & Chutneys

It is produce season and Pam and I have already been presented with Rhubarb, (thanks Jenny).

However for the next couple of months apples, pears, plums, blackberries and other hedgerow fruits are ripening and if you have any excess no matter how small please pass it on to us.

One can make chutneys with many different vegetables as well as fruits so if you have any excess in your garden or allotment then please let me know.

Ask a friend... I have seen some quinces and figs growing in people's gardens as I walk along and know that I saw last year these were not eaten but just left to rot on the ground.

Please consider talking with the owner and see if they will let you collect and pass them on.

During the year we make and sell over 600 jars of produce and have a number of regular customers. And I know it's 5 months away but just a thought, these jars make excellent Christmas gifts for that person you can't think what to get for them!

Thank you Julie Haines and Pam Bugeya

Help for Sundays

Every Sunday morning we need people to help make the service available to the people who arrive for worship. Any help with any of these roles would be greatly appreciated and make a real difference to the people who come into our building on a Sunday morning.

Number 2 steward. 'Steward' is a nominal term - there is not always a second church steward available to meet and greet worshippers and it is helpful to have someone sitting in the Welcome Area to greet late comers and be available to support Sue in Junior worship if necessary. This person would be prepared to help any worshiper who needs support.

Sound operator. To check the sound levels pre service (at 10.15am) and provide the preacher with the lapel mike. During the service to turn the mikes on and off as necessary. End of service put away equipment and turn system off.

Projector operator. To set up the projector with the Powerpoint slides for the service (at 10.15). Throughout the service progress the slides at the right time. End of service turn off and put away equipment. You do not need to be able produce the Powerpoint.

Dismantle Flowers. Not always but frequently the church flower display needs to be dismantled and made into 2/3 bunches for distribution to people who have been identified as recipients for that week.

Local Arrangement Services

With Rev Mark Wakelin retiring and moving to Cambridge it also means we have lost Judith his wife as one of the local preachers which means there are going to be at least 2 services every 3 months that will be done by Local Arrangements. Either Karl or Vindra will be providing the service, prayers, hymns, the reflection and intercessions but there will be a need for help to run these services. We know a number of you have volunteered to take an active part in these services but if you have not identified yourself to a steward, please do so.

Stewards

At least one new Steward will be needed starting in the new church year 1st September.

For more information about any of the above, please have a chat with Julie Haines, Julia Morton or Liz Edwards.

You will receive full instructions for any of the above roles as necessary.

Wesley's Community Hub

Wesley's summer opening hours are working well and a few more people have volunteered though of course more are always welcome. It is hoped that we will return to our 4-hour 2 shift opening in October. Please contact Lee if you are able to help on nmmc.wesleys@hotmail.com

Coming up is a Cancer Awareness day on Thursday 22nd August for which additional help would be appreciated.

Please see the end of this issue for our August Calendar.

The volunteer lunch that was held on Friday 12th July was very well attended and a good time of food and fellowship was had by all as you can see from the photos.

A big thank you to all who helped, especially Greg Martis-Jones for cooking a magnificent and delicious curry.

Cinderella

Thank you to everyone who came along to see the pantomime on Saturday 6th July. We think a good time was had by all!

A huge thank you must go to everyone who contributed in any way to the production, from taking part on the day on stage or behind the scenes, to the lighting set-up, selling tickets and refreshments and lending and making props and costumes. There were also several people who helped early one Sunday morning moving all the lighting equipment up to the upper hall and then formed a human chain to very efficiently transport the scaffolding tower upstairs (and take it back down two weeks later).

The whole production was truly a team effort and any contribution, however small, is greatly appreciated.

However, a special mention must go to Julia. Without her drive and enthusiasm we may not even have started!

She worked incredibly hard at directing, producing, making and sourcing props and generally pulling the whole thing together, galvanising everyone into action and telling them what fun they would have. This is in addition to treading the boards herself as the Fairy Godmother, initially very heavily disguised as a very old old old woman.

Jennifer Morton as Buttons and the wicked step-sisters, Antonia (Gareth Morton) & Declara (Oliver Stowell), otherwise known as Ant and Dec

Cinderella (Emma Kimber) and Buttons receiving the amazing news that the old old old woman is in fact a Fairy Godmother (Julia Morton).

The King (uh-huh-huh) aka Karl Rutlidge flanked by flunkeys Sausage and Chips (Sarah Moore & Sue Abell)

Prince Charming (Becky Haines) 'enjoying' dancing with Ant and Dec at the Ball with Dandini (Rebecca Bland), Sausage & Chips, Villager (Ella Rose Bland) and Baron Hardup (Maria Espadinha).

Prince Charming and Buttons watch with interest to see if the slipper fits Antonia when Dandini tries it on her. Also watching are Declara and their father Baron Hardup.

Everyone at the wedding including the Bear Behind (Ethan Morton), another Villager (Eliza Bland) and the Fairy Godmother's fairies.

Back stage crew: Ollie Kimber, Mike Webb, Amy Jewell & Andrew Bradley.

Hannah Moore returned from her travels two weeks earlier than she told her parents in order to surprise them (it worked). And just in time to be the Prompt, a vital role! This picture was taken at the dress rehearsal on Tuesday 2nd July when Hannah had been awake for 30 hours, including two 10 hour flights.

And finally, Alex Evans the brilliant Musical Director and pianist and Julie Haines on keyboards and laptop providing additional sound effects.

The profits of the day, both the pantomime ticket sales and refreshments have been added to the takings from Wesley's that morning. Thank you to Julie Haines for running Wesley's before her role co-ordinating sound effects in the panto, and of course her team of helpers. This has been sent to Melanoma UK in memory of Nicky Horton who's very big Stage Manager shoes were stepped into with aplomb by Amy Jewell. Nicky would have loved it!

The final total to Melanoma UK was further augmented by a collection at the church cream tea on July 10th which was hosted by Alan Vincent in his beautiful garden bathed in sunshine.

In all, £1685.00 has been raised which is a fantastic total.

Short tennis? You cannot be serious!

Hot on the heels of a fabulous Wimbledon finals weekend that saw all the right winners I headed up to the hallowed flooring of the upper hall on a Thursday afternoon for a spot of short tennis. (Note I did have the afternoon off!). There I found a few familiar faces having a fun time, with the badminton court a more than adequate playing arena. If you don't know, short or mini tennis as it is sometimes known, is played on a smaller court with a bigger, softer ball and short-handled racquets. The rules and scoring are exactly the same as tennis with lets, second serves, deuce etc but there's much less running around. This makes it very appealing and also accessible. As a leftie it's also really easy to put spin and swerve on the ball but I managed to restrain myself most of the time.

It's really excellent fun and also keeps your reflexes sharp. Really the only thing that could have improved the experience was Lee coming round with strawberries and cream (but no Pimms obviously). If you fancy a go, get in touch with Lee or Sarah to register. Qualifiers and seeds welcome. Little danger of rain stopping play too.

Not just new balls please, and thank you.

4th July at the church was exciting not just because it was polling day, but also because the new table tennis table was arriving. Some of you may know that a small group of extremely elite players had been gathering on a Monday evening for many months for a bit of ping pong. The table was a bit old and rickety and the divets in the playing surface added an element of randomness to proceedings so we were delighted when the Finance Committee agreed we could buy a new table. Excitement was short lived when we realised the table had to be assembled but we quickly gathered a crack construction team. According to the instructions it would take two people a mere 20 minutes so with 5 of us we were easily done within an hour and a half.

Assembling the table demanded good team work:

There was much head scratching:

Even more head scratching (the instructions were essentially hieroglyphics)

But it soon started to take shape.

Very soon indeed it was done so we put it away for another week. Construction is tiring.

Seriously, thanks to those who helped. It was a mammoth task and disposing of all the packaging took almost as long.

All good tv series end with a cliffhanger and a “see next week's exciting episode of xxxx” so here's the table tennis table in action. The suspense is over! In contrast to whole swathes of the country, it is blue and also a very perfect playing surface. This is to be applauded but does mean we can no longer blame the table for our wayward shots.

Spot the ball - there are prizes (not)

We are planning a coffee morning to raise funds to help offset the cost of the table. Date to be confirmed but we will get the table out so everyone can show us their trick shots. This is one of our favourites - extra points for hitting the ball behind the piano!
